CORRESPONDENCE – Email:

- 10) From the North Coast Cluster Group. An incident has occurred whereby a new neighbourhood plan has been overridden by a rural exception site application at planning committee. The North Coast Cluster Group is concerned that this now sets a precedent to allow continuous rural exception sites to be granted on green field land, even though there is sufficient planned (and granted) housing to cater for the local housing register families.
- 11) Cornwall Countryside Access Forum - Recruitment of Members 2018
- 12) Cornwall for Change
- 13) CALC responses to consultations - NPPF and Ethical Standards
- 14) Please find attached a letter from Cornwall Council's Safety Advisory Group regarding the Battles Over celebrations year, and in particular, local celebrations.
- 15) The police are requesting that they should be contacted using the link below rather than contacting individual PSCOs. This is because they are working as a team to deal with local priorities.
staustell@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk Residents should still call 101 for non-urgent enquiries or 999 if it is an emergency.
- 16) Community Speed Watch volunteers
- 17) Cornwall Fire, Rescue and Community Safety Service
- 18) St Austell & Mevagissey Community Network Panel and AGM - Thursday 28th June
- 19) Latest news from Cornwall AONB partners
- 20) Cornwall AONB Job Vacancy & an Event in Rame on Sun 24 June
- 21) Campaign: At this time of year there is a real problem of dogs being left unattended in hot cars
